

2019 Fayette County Farmers Market Application

The market is directed and operated by the Farmers' Market Board, in conjunction with the Economic Development Group. These rules may be modified or improved by the Market Board. The Market Board collects fees, assigns spaces, sets market times and dates, settles disputes, and may disqualify vendors for rule violations. Applications have to be submitted 1 week prior to the market. Vendors can NOT show up to the market without prior approval.
